

Week reflection

I always regard myself as a fluent English speaker. But as I take a more active part in English class, I found it hard to answer Mrs.Yao's questions in English. I had to think twice before I open my mouth.

I guess I have to put effort into